WINTER 2009

Give Thanks

With so much related to Christmas headed our way it's easy to skip over the Thanksgiving holiday, but not at Vintage Rose! We have the best Thanksgiving selection ever this year, from beautiful bronze pumpkins to all the festive Coton Colors Thanksgiving servers and decorations. The wreath with the pilgrims is so cute—you have to see it and I know you will want one.

Cinnamon Cider from Aromatique or Homecoming from Tyler will make your home smell wonderful and warm for Thanksgiving. Stop by and pick up some candles or spray!

Sarah's Book Review

Ok, I am not usually the person who sends a shout-out to something from the NY Times Bestseller list (as I usually think the hype surrounding most of those books is excessive), but Dan Brown's new book, "The Lost Symbol," was a stay-up-all-night good read. Seriously—if any of you noticed the bags under my eyes in late September, I confess they were from my inability to put down that book and go to sleep. The book is set in Washington (one of my favorite cities) and takes you on a mystery romp through all the symbols located in our nation's capital; many of which also connect with the Masonic order. It's available at University Book & Bean.

Pandora Jewelry...

Arrives at Vintage Rose

We are so excited to offer the famous and fabulous Pandora charm bracelets and matching jewelry to you! We carry a full selection and can special order any item you want. Unlike many of the dealers in this area we are also offering the gold charms which make an absolutely stunning bracelet. If you haven't seen this line please be sure to stop by. It will be a great Christmas gift for so many ladies on your list as it is popular across all the age groups. The matching jewelry is exquisite—if you haven't seen it, you must. I can't wait to wear the rings.

Welcome To Vintage Rose, too!

Our new expansion opened in late September to rave reviews. We are so happy to have On A Personal Note downstairs so that you can easily find what you need and be inspired by the beautiful invitations, notecards and more. There are a million great ideas for holiday gifts in there—including the personalized custom stamps that make a super gift for a man or a woman. Our Christmas cards are incredible and the process is so much easier than doing it yourself!

There are some great, great personalized gifts available now through On A Personal Note. How about a personalized name puzzle? A personalized sippy cup? A clipboard or mouse pad? Be sure to shop early as many of the personalized orders must be turned in by December 11.

Additionally, we have relocated our Vera Bradley shop into the new side. There is so much to see with Vera's ever-changing line and now it is so much roomier and easier to shop our selection. Remember, Vintage Rose has the most Vera Bradley in this area and our service is unmatched. There's always something new, and this year the Christmas stockings and ornaments are so pretty.

Holiday Open House

Holiday Open House weekend is November 13-15, with the actual Open House Sunday on November 15 from 1-5. We will be having our annual 20% off sale and offering the Vintage Rose Bonus Card with any purchase which entitles you to an additional 20% off purchase during the holiday season. We are sorry that our sale price cannot include our new Pandora (rules, rules!) but Pandora will be offering some Gift With Purchase items and other special offers during the holiday season.

In addition to The Smell of Christmas from Aromatique, we have Votivo's new holiday candles in beautiful silver containers. Your home will smell yummy with either of these.

At Open House the store will be decked out for Christmas and we will have great refreshments and our famous Vintage Rose Punch. Can't wait to see you!
